PARKING TICKET ONLINE PAYMENTS

Charleston, SC – Charleston Mayor Joseph P. Riley, Jr. announces the option to pay parking tickets online via the City of Charleston website. In order to provide another option and better service, the City has upgraded its payment system to allow for online payments. To pay online, please go to www.paycitation.charleston-sc.gov. Payment will be available online 24 hours after the citation has been issued. The citation number and a valid debit card, Visa, or MasterCard is needed to make a payment online.

Payment can also be made in person at 180 Lockwood Blvd., 2nd floor, during business hours Monday-Friday 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. using cash, check, debit card, Visa, or MasterCard. Payment can be made over the phone by calling (843) 724-7375 and paying with a credit card (Visa or MasterCard). Also, citation and payment (only checks or money orders accepted by mail) can be mailed to:

City of Charleston
Revenue Collections Parking Division
180 Lockwood Boulevard, 2nd Floor
Charleston, SC 29403

Mayor Riley said, "The City is always looking for opportunities to improve services. The option to pay a parking ticket through our website is something that was requested by residents and visitors. We hope this service will prove to be a convenient way for those with parking citations to make their payment."
