Business Services Division to Host Resource Presentation with Charleston County Public Library

Charleston, S.C.—The city of Charleston Business Services Division will host Heather Sanford, Charleston County Public Library Business Librarian, for a presentation and demonstration of the free business resources available at the Public Library. The event will take place from 2 to 5 p.m. on Monday, April 23 in the First Floor Public Meeting Room at the Gaillard Center (2 George Street).

The presentation and demonstration is aimed toward residents seeking tools to help them start, improve, or grow a small business in Charleston.

Jordan Lanier, Business Services Manager for the city of Charleston, said, “No matter what stage aspiring or established small business owners are in, the Public Library offers invaluable tools to help them achieve success. Through this event, and in partnership with the library, we hope to increase the public’s awareness of those tools, and encourage entrepreneurship throughout the city.”

This event is free and open to the public. No registration is required. Parking is available in the parking garage on Alexander Street.
