Official City of Charleston Mobile App Now Available for Download

Charleston, S.C.—Today, the city of Charleston officially launched its new mobile app, which gives citizens easy, mobile access to city services and information on smart phones and tablets.

Through the app, citizens will now be able to report a problem, submit a request, make a payment, sign up to receive notifications, and more. Citizens can also use the app to stay up to date on city news, upcoming events, and agendas.

Mayor John Tecklenburg said, “The City of Charleston app is a major step forward in our efforts to ensure that citizens have easy access to the information and services they need. I’d like to thank all the people who worked so hard on this new app, and to encourage our residents to join me in downloading and using it today.”

The app can be downloaded from the Apple or Google Play app stores by searching “City of Charleston, SC.”
