Charleston Essentials Market to Return to Marion Square with COVID-19 Restrictions in Place

Charleston, S.C.—Due to the ongoing situation related to COVID-19 in South Carolina, the Charleston Farmers Market will return to Marion Square in its essentials-only format on Saturday, April 10, 2021 from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m., and will continue every Saturday thereafter for the remainder of the season.

Vendors and patrons will be required to wear masks and maintain social distancing throughout the event, and to follow all other CDC protocols related to COVID-19.

This essentials-only format will feature Farmers & Growers, Packaged Food Vendors, and Artisans & Crafters. No prepared food vendors, entertainment or other activities will be included.

Sanitation stations will be set up throughout the market, as well as signage designed to guide customers safely from vendor to vendor.

Parking will be available in the nearby Marion Square (399 King St.), Camden (35 John St.) and Visitor Center (73 Mary St.) parking garages.

For additional information and announcements related to the Charleston Farmers Market, please follow the event's Facebook (@CharlestonFarmersMarket), Twitter (@charlestonfarms) and Instagram (@charlestonfarms) accounts.
