April 24 Charleston Essentials Market Canceled Due to Hazardous Weather Forecast

Charleston, S.C.—Due to this weekend’s severe weather forecast, which includes the possibility of damaging winds, the Charleston Essentials Market scheduled for Saturday, April 24 from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. has been canceled.

Weather permitting, the Market is set to resume on Saturday, May 1.

Charleston Farmers Market Manager Harrison Chapman said, “As always, the safety of our vendors and patrons is our top priority. While we regret the need for this weekend’s cancelation, we look forward to continuing our season in the coming weeks under sunnier skies.”
