

CITY OF CHARLESTON

2023 TOUR GUIDE RECERTIFICATION

CONTINUING EDUCATION LECTURE SERIES

---

September

Building Community Through Preservation—Recent commercial projects of Glenn Keyes Architects.– Adrienne Jacobsen

Glenn Keyes Architects Preservationist, Adrienne Jacobsen, walks us through some of her newest rehabilitations. Join us as we delve into the history of St. George SC's 1927 Rosenwald School to downtown Charleston's Farmers and Exchange Bank and Visitor's Center.

Thursday 28 noon, 2 George Public Meeting Room, or zoom. For Zoom, please register here.

October

Exploration into the Funerary Art of Colonial Charleston– Andrew Kuhn

Charleston is home to some of the most beautiful and eclectic funerary art in the United States. In this class, we will explore the early burial practices of colonial Charleston along with the hidden meaning and purpose of the symbolism found on many gravestones across the city. We will discuss the influence of the other colonies on the funerary art in Charleston. Finally, we will dive into the a few of the lives of the residents of the graveyards around town along with the events they experienced that affected how they are remembered today.

Friday 13 noon, 2 George Public Meeting Room, or zoom. For Zoom, please register here.

November

Shining a spotlight on Jewish Charleston 1695-2023-Anita Rosenberg, Harlan Greene

Wednesday 15th 10am KKBE, 90 Hasell St.

Legends and Lies: North and South of Line Street -- a feeble attempt to dispel rumors, myths, and BAR nonsense.- Linda Bennett

Thursday 30, 1:30pm 2 George Public Meeting Room, or zoom. For Zoom, please register here.

December

The Early Greeks and the Orthodox Church in Charleston and Their Contribution to the Holy City.

Wednesday 6th noon Greek Orthodox Church, 30 Race St.

A City of Charleston Voluntary Certified Guide ID is valid for three years. Recertification can be done in the following ways:

- Retake the exam
- Fulfill the continuing education requirement by attending four lectures within the three year period.

Guides with 25 years of experience are exempt from the recertification process, but must follow all other related city requirements.